CONTENTS.

VOL. XVI.

	Page
Anthologia of selected Poetry,	14, 135
Althea Vernon. By Miss Leslie,	28, 58, 99, 170, 217, 264
A Sermon in a Garden,	54
A Day in New England. By F. S. Osgood,	65
A Sister's Love,	135
A Ball Room Scene,	139
Adieu,	166
A Vision,	208
A Prayer,	224
Anecdote from the French,	232
Beauty. By W. B. Tappan,	284
Commentaries on Select passages of Burns,	64
"Cold o'er my bosom." By Mrs. Hentz,	110
Cotton. By a Lady of Tennesse,	124
Conchology. By Mrs. S. Smith,	180
Comparison and Contrast,	224
"Do I love thee?" By Mrs. V. E. Howard,	4
Desultory Thoughts,	110
"Dark eyes are beaming brightly." By J. H. Willis,	281
Death of Wolfe. By Miss J. H. Williams,	248
Extracts from Lockhart's Biography of Scott,	43
Editor's Table,	46, 96, 143, 190, 239, 284
Extract from "Ethel Churchill,"	229
Extracts from the new Novel of "Love,"	238
Esther, a Dramatic Sketch,	241
Evening Thoughts,	253
Female Education,	74
Friendship's Altar,	208
Female Portrait Gallery,	233
Fragments of an unpublished Indian Story. By John Howard Willis.	254
Flowers,	284
"Good night Little Ellen,"	152
"Gentle Lady, sweetly sleep," set to music,	188
"Hark those sounds." By Mrs. C. B. Wilson,	254
"Hinda's Lament," set to music,	282
"I don't think I'm ugly," set to music,	94
Implicit Obedience,	272
"I'm o'er young to marry yet," set to music,	236
Journey of a Night,	138
Katherine Phillips,	190
Lines. By Grenville Mellen,	105
Lines written in an Album,	166
"Let me live till I am old." By W. B. Tappan,	175
Letter to the Editor,	193
Laura Bridgman. By Mrs. Sigourney,	252
Messiah's Kingdom. By Rev. J. H. Brown,	42
Margaret Haines. By Mrs. S. Smith,	113
New Year's Day. By Mrs. Sedgwick,	16
Ormond Grosvenor. By Mrs. Hale,	33, 49, 145
"O come with me." By Mrs. C. L. Hentz,	67
Origin of the Diamond,	121
"On the Baptism of my Little Frederick,"	211
"Peace to our absent friends." By Mrs. Abdy,	143
Perfection,	212
Queen Victoria,	97
Real Conversation; or, Recollections of the past. By Mrs. Hofland,	1
Recollections. By G. Mellen,	32
Revolt of the Gladiators. By Miss Buchanan,	157
Review of the Young Ladies' Friend,	167, 225, 245
Random Sketches,	278
Sketch of Anna Lætitia Barbauld,	18
Stanzas. By G. Mellen,	54
Serenade,	92
Stanzas,	125
Sleep, the want of Sleep, with their contingencies. By Mrs. Hofland,	177

	Page
The Indian Girl's Funeral. By Mrs. Sigourney,	5
Torcello,	ib.
The Vesper Bell,	17
The Victim of Excitement. By Mrs. C. L. Hentz,	19
The Herald. By Mrs. Hale,	28
The Failure. By Miss Penhallow,	40
"The Dead Soldier," set to music,	44
The Emigrant's Daughter. By Mrs. Sigourney,	57
To Mrs. Hemans,	63
The Murderer's Fate,	68
The Star of Hope,	74
The Treasured Harp,	79
The three Pictures. By Miss Modina,	ib.
The art of Printing,	95
The White Chrysantheum,	105
The Solitary. By Mrs. Hofland,	106
To my Sister,	113
The Victim of Passion,	125
"The light of other days," set to music,	141
"The heavenly rest." By W. B. Tappan,	143
The Flower Girl. By Miss Miles,	153
The Praying Indians. By Mrs. S. Smith,	169
The Consumptive,	175
The Chamber of the Pale Lady,	181
The Touchy Lady,	186
The Village Murder,	194
The Departure of Winter. By Rev. J. H. Clinch,	206
The Children's Wishes,	208
The Sister's Revenge. By Miss Miles,	209
The first printed Bible,	235
The Wild Huntsman,	260
The Boarding House,	ib.
The very Friendly Young Gentleman,	280
The Enclosed Common. By Mrs. Abdy,	283
Washing Day,	18
Why women were made lovely,	93
Wanderer's Story. By A. M. F. Buchanan,	137
Wives. By Mrs. A. M. Sargeant,	207
Woman's Love,	211
Ximena, the Flower of Peru. By Miss Penhallow,	249

EMBELLISHMENTS.

January No.,	Plate of Fashions, elegantly coloured—	and scene from Fridolin.
February,	do.	do.
March,	Plate of Queen Victoria,	do.
April,	Plate of Fashions,	do.
May,	do.	do.
June,	do.	do., and Title Page on steel.